Society Specific Statement Prompts

Social Studies HS

Reflect on your experiences in social studies coursework and extracurricular activities (clubs, volunteer work, etc.). How have these experiences shaped your understanding of global interconnectedness and your role as a responsible global citizen? Discuss specific examples and insights that have been particularly meaningful to you. Additionally, share your thoughts on a historical person or event that has had a significant impact on you and why.

Tri - M

Musical Scholastic Achievement:

Discuss your achievements in music, both within and outside the classroom.

Moral Integrity: Reflect on how you have exhibited the morals of Tri-M in your life, particularly in your role as a musician.

Interest in Music: Explain your passion for music and its role in your life. What motivates you to continue pursuing music, and how do you hope to contribute to the music community in the future?

English National Honor Society

Write a personal essay (~250-450 words) that shows how reading, writing, or language has helped you. You might reflect on:

- a time in class, on an assignment, or in life when reading or writing was important to you
- how words have helped you understand yourself or others
- a challenge you've faced with language and what it taught you

Resume

As you begin to write your resume, please consider:

- All aspects of your life- school, sports, volunteer, work, etc.
- Use “action” verbs that help highlight your skills, such as planned, developed, assisted, educated, improved, etc.
 - ◆ Resume action verbs

Common Issues:

- Be sure your teacher rec form spells your name correctly
 - ◆ Email teachers to ask, so it is in writing and we can confirm you asked
 - ◆ It is a Google Form that is easy and simple, no teachers should be writing a letter of rec
- DO NOT email your supporting documents or add to Google Classroom. If it is not attached on the google form, then it will not be considered for your application.
- You have to have hours signed off on!
