Hearing of Citizens Continued

Victoria Kravitz commented on bullying in the schools as her daughter is being bullied. Ms. Kravitz stated if the curriculum was more rigorous, the students wouldn't have time for bullying. She doesn't know how to solve the bullying issue and the Board needs to be aware of what is going on. Ms. Kravitz also congratulated the tenure candidates and retirees.

Superintendent Mauricio is looking at addressing this issue. The District is bringing more out to the community. It is a community effort. The District is building upon things we have. We have to identify and address it.

Sierra McClennan also expressed concern about bullying as her daughter had an issue on the bus last year. The situation was handled but she wanted the Board to know don't forget about bullying on the bus.
